IS THIRTY-TWO YEARS OLD

Anniversary of the Founding of Zion Baptist Church.

NINE MEMBERS AT FIRST

Now Its Communicants Number Over Two Thousand-A Sunday School With Over One Thousand Members-Its Present Pastor in Charge Yen Years-A Week of Praise.

The thirty-second anniversary of the The thirty-seeing anniversary of the Zion Baptist Church, colored, on F street, between Third and Four-and-a-half streets southwest, was celebrated yesterday. The members of this church have every reason to be thankful at this time for their efforts to be thankful at this time for their efforts in building up the enarch, which was established thirty-two years ago.

The Zion Baptist Church, when organized. September 12, 1864, was composed of but nine members, these being baptized by the late Rev. W. J. Walker, first pestor of the church. The meetings were then held in the Jackson school house at Delaware and Leitzet southwest. The misavenue and L street southwest. The nine members were as folk ws: Mrs. Betsy Bran-son, Mrs. Hannah Matthews, Mr. Andrew Jackson, Mrs. Jane Gwum, Mrs. Susan Landon, Mr. Nelson Elhot, Mrs. Harriet Harris, Mrs. Fannie Sydnor, Mr. Henry Coneway.

A NEW EDIFICE.

From that time on the church grew and prespered, and finally, after the member-ship became so large that the schoolhouse became too small to hold the meetings, it moved into the little frame house which stood on the site of the present church edifice. Here, too, the church grew and pres pered under the pastorates of the Revs. W. J. Walker and William Gibbons. During the latter's administration the frame house was terndown and a larger one was erected in its place. Since the pastorate of the Rev. W. J. Howard, the present pastor, the Rev. W. J. Howard, the present pastor, the church has grown to mighty proportions and today enjoys a membership of 2,018, a great change from the little hand of nine in September, '64.

Not only has the church grown in membership but it has grown in wealth, and today stands as one of the richest and most distinguished colored churches in the city. The church edifice, which was begun in June, 1892, and completed in October of the same year, is a handsome brickstructure and meets the requirements of the congregation equally as well as a building of more pretentious proportions. It is a building well and confortably furnished and contains rooms and apartments that are in every way adapted to the demands that can be made.

The church people are united and are devoted to the work which the connection with the church gives them to do. The Sunday-school is in a most prosperous condition and has in membership over 1,000 scholars, which is quite as large as any other school in the city. There are two Caristian Endeaver societies and one mision and Sunday-school in the northeast In all of these branches of the church the ork has been especially successful and the best results have been attained.

TEN YEARS A PASTOR. In connection with the thirty-secon unniversary of the church, the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Howard, is celebrating his tenth nev. Mr. Howard, is expecially grateful at this time that he has been successful in his labors, and in view of the situation there will be a week or prayer and praise, in which the congregation will be asked to contribute something toward the church form, the same to be used in paying off fund, the same to be used in paying off the remaining indebtedness.

During the ten years of Mr. Howard's pastorate the congregation has raised over $58,000, which has been used in maintain-ing the good name and its good relations which it has borne since its organization the satisfaction of its congregation and the chirch generally and by the help of friends it will continue to maintain as long as there is a church to support. The anniversary services yesterday in-cluded a praise meeting at 6 o'clock in cluded a praise meeting at 6 o'clock in the morning under the leadership of Deacon J. R. Nelson. At 11 o'clock the pas-tor preached a sermon from Jeremiah vir.3. The theme was, "Amendatory Re-ligion Necessary to Perpetuity." In the afternoon a sermon was preached by the Rev. Robert Johnson, paster of the Met ropolitan Baptist Church, and at 8 o'clock ast night the Rev. C. A. Leftwich preached. ing this week, followed by a sermon. Next Sunday there will be services at 6 and 11 a. m. and at 3, 7:30 and 8 p. m.
